

Callie Lynn Compton
Weightless Aerial Company, LLC, CEO
Memphis, Tennessee 38120
calliecompton@gmail.com
(90) 569-4305

Education

University of Memphis Sophomore Journalism major/Dance minor (Present);
U of M Student Government Association Cabinet Member (Present); U of M Freshman Senate (2013);
Germantown High School, Class of 2013, graduated with honors
International Thespian Society (2010-2013); National Forensics League (2012-2013)

Volunteer Work

Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation youth ambassador, I mentor newly diagnosed type one diabetics and speak at events and meetings (2008-Present)
Member of the Diabetes Youth Council for event planning and leadership (2011-2013)
JDRF Children's Congress Tennessee delegate, I was featured on a news program and in three newspapers (2011)
JDRF Walk to Cure Diabetes team captain and logistics committee member (2009-Present)
Founded and supports the JDRF Lindsi Young Memorial Scholarship to send diabetic children to Camp Hopewell (2011-Present)

Other

Alpha Delta Pi Sorority (2013-Present); ADPi New Member Coordinator (Spring 2014); Junior company member of Valeria's Wings aerial performance troupe (2011-2013); performed in the Tennessee Shakespeare Company's prelude scenes (2010, 2013)

Employment

Weightless Aerial Company, LLC-Founder, CEO, and Creative Director August 2014-Present
The Daily Helmsman Photographer and Reporter Fall 2014-Spring 2015
Aerial Angels Company Intern Summer 2014
Germantown Community Television Intern 2011
Camp Hopewell Camp and Conference Center Summer 2012, Oxford, Mississippi